CITY WINS SUIT

JUDGE M'CORMICK RULES THAT GRAND VIEW ANNEXATION PROCEEDINGS ARE VALID

Tuesday a decision was handed down by Judge McCormick which was favorable to the City of Glendale in the suit brought against it under a writ of review by certain residents of the Grand View district who were opposed to its annexation to this city which took place about the first of the year, as a result of a majority vote of the residents. For the past two years the territory has been trying to get into the municipality and at three elections involving that question they have voted each time to come in by a large majority. The first election was held to be invalid by the Superior Court and thrown out. The second failed by reason of the fact that Casa Verdugo, which was included in the territory to be annexed, voted against coming in. In the last election although a large majority voted for it, a few people who were opposed brought an action in court to have the election held to be invalid on the ground that the territory was not such inhabited territory as is contemplated by the annexation law. It was tried out before Judge McCormick and, as stated, he rendered a decision Tuesday in favor of the City of Glendale, holding the territory to be annexable territory.

City Attorney Evans who represented Glendale's interests in the suit, is well pleased with the decision, which confirms the status of Grand View as a part of the municipality, and he declares it is going to be a very valuable district.

A DUCK TALE

STORY OF DUTCH CULTURE BY A GENUINE ENTHUSIAST IN THIS LINE

There are two kinds of bird that the quack is linked up to—a fake doctor and a duck. The kind E. L. Young waxes enthusiastic over is the latter. He is just Young, the repair man, most of the time, but his one side line is ducks—not Pekins or Muscovies but just Indian Runners. He has a few hens and rabbits but to start him talking just say ducks. He has only ten layers but this little group of money makers laid 240 eggs in April and 225 in March. As the setting eggs bring $1.50 for 13 and the others the price of hen eggs, they certainly are doing their part in making up for the high cost of living. And, according to Mr. Young, duck meat is ready for the cook sooner than any other kind. In 45 days from hatching he had young ducks that weighed two and one-half pounds, dressed. The ordinary chicken of the heavy breeds will not reach that weight under four months and a rabbit under three to three and one-half months. The 10 laying ducks have not only produced the revenue mentioned above but have contributed eggs for home settings, which have produced several young. Mr. Young uses Rhode Island Red hens only, for hatching the duck eggs, and the little ones are no trouble whatever to raise. They do not

ATTENTION, ELKS

The funeral services of W. R. Miller, who passed away Tuesday morning, will be held Thursday, May 22, 1919, from the parlors of L. G. Scovern Co. at 1:30 p. m., under the auspices of the local order of the B. P. O. Elks, No. 1289, of which he was a member.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT

LITTLE BOY'S HEAD CRUSHED BY OWN FATHER'S WAGON

Charles Overholt, who lives a mile west of Burbank on Central Avenue, accidentally killed his own son, Tuesday. The father was hauling hay from a field near by and had stopped at home for dinner after putting on a heavy load, which hung down all around the wagon. While he was allowing his team to eat and getting his own dinner, his little son, Lester Charles Overholt, crawled under the wagon and went to sleep just in front of one of the hind wheels. The father brought out his team, hitched them to the wagon, climbed on the load and started up. The little son's head was run over and crushed, killing him instantly. Funeral services were held today at 1 o'clock, in charge of the L. G. Scovern Co. Interment is to be in Whittier cemetery.

TRAFFIC PROBLEM

CITY ARRANGES WITH P. E. TO TAKE ON AND DISCHARGE PASSENGERS AT ONE POINT

For two years or more Glendale officials have sought to secure some solution of the traffic problem at Broadway and Brand which would do away with confusion in regard to the place where passengers should board cars and with the congestion of traffic. The many problems connected with the war have prevented P. E. officials from giving the desired attention to the matter, but now they have agreed to a plan which is very satisfactory to city officials. Under the practice which has been followed south-bound cars have been stopped on the north side of Broadway on Brand and out-going cars from the east on the east side of Brand on Broadway. The public could never be certain which of the two would go to Los Angeles, so there has been confusion. To correct that difficulty it has been agreed to stop all cars for Los Angeles south of Broadway on Brand and to place a sign in a conspicuous place calling attention to the change. The city will mark out on the pavement a safety zone seven feet wide paralleling the track and place a traffic sign at the north end of the zone such as is placed in Los Angeles directing traffic to turn to the right, thus providing a clear and safe place for making transfers from the east and the north to outgoing cars to Los Angeles. A safety zone similar to the one described will be outlined on the pavement on the east side of the track on Brand with a similar traffic sign on the south end thus providing a clear and safe place for traffic while making transfers from incoming cars to Burbank, north end and east-bound cars. There will be one definite place where they may be taken by persons wishing to go east or north.

The city officials believe this plan will clear up whatever confusion there has been in making connections for Los Angeles at this point. All cars crossing Broadway at Brand will slow down to four miles an hour.

The city is providing by ordinance for another safety zone on the north side of Broadway, just east of the alley paralleling the north track of the Glendale-Montrose line. This zone will be of sufficient length to provide a clear and safe space for taking on and discharging passengers by the Glendale-Montrose which will stand at that point and switch back onto the south line on Broadway as they go east at the Maryland cross-over.

There will be no cars operating the wrong way of the traffic on the south track on Broadway or around the corner on Brand boulevard. Under this plan the wrong operation of cars on the south track on Broadway is unnecessary.

This change will be put into effect as soon as the signs can be prepared. The adoption of the plan is a great satisfaction to city officials not only because it reduces possibilities of accident at what has been a very dangerous corner, but because it will make the civic center of Glendale present a more smart appearance than it does when cars are "sprawled" as it were, all over the street at that junction of the leading business thoroughfares.

OLD KENTUCKY HOME

F. H. CASSELL WILL TRY THE SIMPLE LIFE TO REGAIN LOST HEALTH

F. H. Cassell and family of 515 N. Kenwood motored to Big Bear Lake last Friday to investigate the feasibility of building a small bungalow on lots they own there and roughing it for the summer. They returned Monday by way of Victorville. On consulting their doctor they were strongly advised against such a move, so they abandoned the plan, which had been considered on account of Mr. Cassell's complete nervous breakdown. For many years he has been one of the buyers of one of the big dry goods stores of Los Angeles and his work the past year has been so heavy and wearing that he has completely broken down. His firm wishes him to take a long vacation promising to hold his position open till he returns. So on Saturday he will depart for the old Kentucky home, Lexington, but after a brief visit there, will go 130 miles further on to Cumberland Falls, in the region made famous by John Fox, Jr. Here he will hunt and fish and live the primitive life for several months, with the hope of completely regaining his health.

WEATHER FORECAST: Unsettled weather.

ENGINE DISABLED ON N C 4

N-C 3 BEING SHIPPED BACK TO THE UNITED STATES BY COMMANDER TOWERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, May 21.—Admiral Jackson, in command at Azores, has cabled the navy that engine trouble will prevent the N-C 4 from resuming its flight before tomorrow. He said: "One engine is not functioning properly."

Navy officials say that since only one plane is left to complete the flight, no chances will be taken and that the N-C 4 will not start until the plane is in perfect condition and the weather entirely favorable. It is said the N-C 4 will have completed its flight when it reaches Lisbon, but the plan still contemplates sending the plane to Plymouth, England.

Commander Towers has cabled that he has decided to send the N-C 3 back to the United States. It is not known whether Commander Towers will proceed with the N-C 4 as flight commander.

BELGIANS AND DUTCH DISAGREE

BELGIUM DEMANDS REVISION OF CLAUSES IN THE PEACE TREATY AFFECTING HOLLAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, May 21.—The Dutch delegation invited to the peace conference for the revision of the treaty today began conferences with the council, foreign ministers and Belgian representatives.

Belgium has demanded the annulment of the clause binding Belgium to perpetual neutrality; revision of the clause cutting Antwerp off from the sea; the removal of the menace to the Belgian border created by the peninsula of Lutch Limberg. There is no indication that the Dutch will concede anything vital to their interests without a hard diplomatic fight. It is understood that the Duch are especially determined not to yield any territory.

IMPERFECTIONS OF PEACE TREATY

PRESIDENT WILSON FORCED TO TRADE IN ORDER TO GET LEAGUE OF NATIONS THROUGH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, May 21.—(Copyrighted by United Press.)—The resignations of nine members of the American peace commission have revealed that their sentiments against the treaty in its present form are shared by a great portion of the American commission. No member has been found who would give his unqualified approval. The nearest approach to approval is found in the statement of several members that the treaty is bad, but the League of Nations redeems it. Others condemn President Wilson for approving the treaty, although they defend his sincerity and say the creation of a League of Nations was a bigger task than many appreciate. Their criticisms concern particularly the Shantung, Saar Basin and Italian settlements.

Members of the peace bureau, who have been engaged during the last two years under Colonel House in gathering data, declare that their data has never been used, and that the representatives of other nations came to Paris to barter and trade. One man declared the treaty is a regular "Rivers and Harbors Bill. The President found himself involved in the trading game in order to get the League of Nations through, and I hope the world will find he has not paid too great a price." Many take it for granted that Congress will probe the manner in which the treaty was made.

STILL SEARCHING FOR HAWKER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, May 21.—Parliamentary Secretary for the Admiralty McNamara today announced in the House of Commons that destroyers are searching for Harry Hawker, the British trans-Atlantic aviator, but that no trace of him has yet been found.

FLOATING CANNERY BURNS

PLANT OF JOHN G. NORTH CONSUMED AT SEA OFF THE COAST OF MEXICO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

San Pedro, May 21.—The floating cannery of John G. North, valued at many thousands of dollars, burned at sea off the Mexican coast, according to word brought here by the schooner Rex. The vessel was canning tuna and contained very valuable machinery.

WORLD-WIDE STRIKE OF WOMEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Zurich, May 21.—The International Congress of Women, at its concluding session here, voted unanimously to call a world-wide strike of women in the event that another war is declared. Fraulein Hertzke of Vienna presented the resolution. The motion passed calls for a strike even if the League of Nations sanctions war.

Los Angeles, May 21.—Georgia P. Bullock, a noted woman attorney, declared today that she believed a world-wide strike of women against war couldn't very well go further than a general protest; that she believed if it were conducted in a dignified manner it might be heeded, but she did not know how effective it would be.

ENTHUSIASM HIGH

GREATER GLENDALE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION FIGHTS TOLL CHARGE

The sentiment expressed at the meeting of the Greater Glendale Development Association last night showed clearly that this association is not retracting any former action taken against the injustice of telephone toll charge to Los Angeles and a raise in the exchange rates. The meeting was presided over by Attorney C. L. Chandler, one of the vice-presidents of the association. C. D. Lusby, the official secretary, performed his duties as usual.

Captain Jackson, chairman of the committee on removing phones, gave a very encouraging talk and said that all the work of his committee would be finished by the time of the next meeting. He asked for volunteers to assist in closing up the solicitation work. His request was answered by eight volunteers, all of whom are members of important business firms or prominent citizens.

F. V. Owen, a member of the Municipal Phone Committee, reported that he had been meeting with great encouragement and his committee endorsed the action of the Board of City Trustees in securing an expert engineer to report on the cost of the installation of a complete new phone system. Mr. Owen is of the opinion from past experiences that a municipal system may be conducted in such a way that a phone may be in practically every home in Glendale. He thinks a rental of $1 per month for all connections through the local exchange will be a possible rate.

The entire time of the meeting was given up to considering different phases of the telephone troubles now on and the prevailing spirit of the meeting was that Glendale citizens put up a fight that in the end will show to the telephone company that unreasonable methods cannot be used in conducting a public utility. Among those who spoke pointedly against the present action of the telephone company were C. D. Lusby, W. E. Evans, Dr. Westphall, W. B. Kirk, Edwin Pierce, J. F. Chandler, C. E. Kimlin, Capt. D. Ripley Jackson, F. V. Owen and V. M. Hollister.

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES TO MEET

Tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2:30, an "Interdenominational Day" program will be enjoyed in the Tropico Presbyterian Church, corner Central Avenue and Laurel Street. All the Women's Missionary Societies of the city will be represented and there will be addresses by some representative of each society. The ladies are looking forward to an afternoon of pleasure and instruction.

GLENDALE CHILDREN IN RECITAL

In a recital given by Miss Maude Fowler last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Louise Rehbock, 480 Solano Avenue, Los Angeles, Glendale was represented by Edward Stockbridge, who played "Twilight Reverie," by T. J. Guy; by Esther Phillipi, who played "Spring Flowers," and by William Edwin Smith and Thelma Turner, who played "Water Sprites," by L'avalanche.

INTERMEDIATE GAME

Today's ball game on the Intermediate Field was between the Giants and Tigers. Gordon Richardson pitched for the Tigers and Tommy Morgan for the Giants. In the first inning Leslie Lavell made a home run for the Giants. Four innings were played and the final score was 9 to 6 in favor of Giants.

OUR HONOR FLAG

MRS. RALPH MEEKER RECEIVES GLENDALE'S OVER-THE-TOP EMBLEM

Mrs. Ralph Meeker, head of the Victory Loan Drive in Glendale, has just received from official headquarters an honor flag for the city. It is a large, handsome white flag bordered with red and centered with a big, blue "V." She is now negotiating with City Manager Watson in regard to having it placed on the municipal flag pole of the city, and it will probably soon be flying.

Mrs. Meeker also reports the receipt of an additional $50 for a bond from the head offices of the C. B. & Q. Railroad in Chicago, transmitted by the corporation for one of its employes, Mr. Jordan, who formerly resided in this city, and who wished Glendale to have the credit of his purchase. This shows that Glendale's "little candle" is sending its beams a long distance.

WAS UNAVOIDABLE

GLENDALE LADY IN REGRETTABLE AUTO ACCIDENT, NO FATALITIES

Mrs. F. H. Cassell, of 515 North Kenwood, drove to South Los Angeles yesterday afternoon on business for her husband. On her return, up Vermont, she had just crossed Washington St., when a woman with a five-months'-old baby in her arms darted right in front of her auto in an effort to reach a southbound Vermont Ave. car that had just stopped for the Washington St. crossing.

Mrs. Cassell instantly jammed the brake hard down and stopped so suddenly that the woman was not run over. Her left foot was struck by the front wheel and pushed in front of it for a very short distance, breaking the ankle. The fact that Mrs. Cassell stopped her machine within its own length is ample evidence that she was traveling at less than five miles an hour. As the woman fell, she threw her baby, which was on her left arm, from her and it landed, unhurt, between the fender and the hood. The woman, who proved to be Mrs. Chas. I. Young, living at the corner of 39th and Wisconsin, was taken at once to the receiving hospital, while Mrs. Cassell followed with the baby, a witness of the accident accompanying her to carry the little one. Mrs. Young fully exonerated Mrs. Cassell from all blame. As usual, Los Angeles papers published grossly exaggerated accounts of the accident, one stating that both of Mrs. Young's ankles were broken and that she would be lamed for life and another that she threw the baby into Mrs. Cassell's lap, which was impossible without it going entirely through the windshield. And the mother's injuries are not at all serious and she was removed from the receiving hospital today to the care of a sister.

Mrs. Cassell is an unusually careful driver, as many of her Glendale friends can testify, one of her neighbors declaring emphatically that she is the only one outside of his own family that he would trust to drive his car.

METHODIST CHURCH PROPERTY ASSESSED

Last year when the First Methodist Church building was used for the High School graduation exercises on the ground that it was the only auditorium in the city large enough to accommodate those wishing to attend, some objections were voiced to the effect that a church building exempted as such from taxation, should not be used for any purpose but that of religious worship. Last week the trustees of the Methodist Church were notified by the county assessor that the matter had been called to his attention and in conformity to the opinion of the county counsel he had listed the church property for assessment and taxation this year. When the trustees of the church were asked, Saturday, by the High School authorities, for the use of their auditorium for graduation exercises again this year, they decided to grant the request and to fight the assessment order.

RETURNED SOLDIERS

GUESTS OF HONOR AT PRETTY PARTY GIVEN BY MISS MYRTLE PULLIAM

Miss Myrtle Pulliam, assisted by her sister, Mrs. John Legge, was hostess Tuesday evening at a very pleasant but altogether informal social affair in honor of Sergeant Owen Emery and his cousin, Clarence Smith, who is the guest of relatives here and who will leave the latter part of the week to return north. Nearly all the guests were very well acquainted and it was therefore a reunion of old friends. It also brought together many men who have been in service. The list of invited guests included Sergeant Emery, Clarence Smith, Mr. Steevy, Dwight Stephenson, R. M. Grumbling, Robert and Eustace Rowley, Harold McElroy, J. T. Beach, Sidney Simon, Charles Wells, little John Allen Legge, Jr., Misses Alice Gray Beach, Grace Beach, Gladys Justema, Waunita Emery, Lucile Parker, Mesdames John Legge, Charles Wells, and Miss Dale.

"Bunco" was the chief diversion of the evening, the prizes going to Miss Parker and Sergeant Emery. There was also a good deal of music and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

The Pulliam home was beautifully decorated with wild flowers and ferns brought from the hills and canyons north of the city, and with garden roses.

PROVIDE FOR SAFETY FIRST

The attention of the Evening News has been called to proposed changes in traffic conditions at Brand Boulevard and Broadway, in reference to the place of requiring passengers to board the Pacific Electric cars. The proposed plan would permit the cars from the north and east to continue across Broadway without stopping. This plan should never be adopted and put into practice unless a traffic man is constantly on duty at the intersection of these streets to warn the traffic when electric cars are approaching. There are many dangers to encounter at present at the Brand Boulevard and Broadway crossing, and to allow the electric cars to cross these streets without first coming to a standstill will add greatly to the danger.

While it may be argued by railroad officials that it is now customary for cars not stopping for passengers to pass over crossings without first coming to a standstill, yet on account of the Pacific Electric station being opposite this usual place of stopping, strangers who are approaching the crossing from the east or west with automobiles will expect the electric cars to stop in front of the station, and therefore will drive on to the tracks with that idea in mind unless an officer is present to give warning of danger.

PRESIDENT AROUSES STORM OF WRATH

The President's recommendation, in his message to Congress, that the war prohibition act be repealed or at least amended so as to exclude from its operation light wines or beer, has aroused a storm of protest, not only from avowed prohibition workers, but from members of Congress who have been merely passive or else lukewarm in its support, who see in this another attempt to dictate to the opposition, and who profess to believe it a shrewd attempt on his part to sow dissension among Republicans.

GENERAL FOCH PREPARED FOR ANY EVENTUALITY

There is one man among the Allies who is never caught napping and who prepares ahead very carefully for all possible emergencies. This is Marshal Ferdinand Foch. He has everything mapped out to do if the Germans refuse to sign the peace terms, and this gray man of war would not mourn deeply if his precautions prove to be necessary, for he is not a bit averse to showing the Huns what an invasion of their own unscathed land means.

WOODMAN GAINING GROUND

Mayor Woodman's stock in the race for re-election is rising rapidly. Sylvester L. Weaver, one of the men he defeated, has come out strongly in his favor, following the example of another candidate, Mr. Williams, who so announced himself last week.

GOING OVER THE TOP

SUBSCRIPTIONS OF FIRST M. E. CHURCH FOR CENTENARY DRIVE $19,400

Rev. Charles H. Scott states that the teams of workers on the Centenary quota for the First Methodist Church of this city, reported Tuesday evening at the daily round-up and supper that subscriptions of $19,401 had been secured with bright prospects for today's campaign.

With the objective for the Centenary quota so nearly in sight ($24,000), the question of continuing the drive to raise the church debt of $28,000 is up for decision. The teams could only vote to recommend a continuation. The decision is in the hands of the official board of the church, which includes the Board of Trustees of which C. W. Ingledue is president, other members being C. H. Bott, T. A. Wright, Ed Lee, T. W. Watson, A. W. Tower and Louis Brockman, who is now living in Hemet. These with twenty other men of the church make up the official board which is to meet tonight and sup with the drive captains and workers and render a decision in regard to the continuance of the campaign.

The supper will be in charge of the section headed by Mesdames Ed Lee and C. E. Russell, and in view of the issues at stake it will probably be quite an exciting event.

Rev. Scott says it has been assumed among Methodists of Southern California that his church, because of its big debt, would be unable to meet its quota. The present situation which promises to put the drive over the top today or tomorrow is therefore most gratifying to him and his fellow workers. He stated further that 133 Methodist churches in this area have already reached their quotas, including the Eagle Rock and the Casa Verdugo churches. Inquiry from officials of the other two organizations, the West Glendale and Central Methodist Churches, revealed that their canvass is proceeding in a very satisfactory manner.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING

A Board meeting of the Senior Christian Endeavor Society of the Glendale Presbyterian Church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Bessie Field, on Kenwood Street, which was more or less of a social nature although business matters and discussions relating thereto occupied most of the time. Sabin Buck presided and Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds were most welcome guests. One of the matters brought up was the official charts which have been prepared to forward the "New Era Campaign" and which were before the society for adoption. They call for subscriptions from all members of $1 per year to be expended for the home mission work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, the money thus accumulated to be distributed among the Presbyterian agencies for uplift among the Indians, Mexicans, Chinese, foreign born and colored people. After the charts had been thoroughly explained the society voted to take them. At the close of the session light refreshments were served to the twenty-four present.

OFFICER FRYER RESIGNS

Officer Fryer, now Acting Captain of the police force of Glendale, has tendered his resignation to accept a position in a planing mill where the hours will be shorter and the pay better. It will take effect Monday. There will be a temporary division of his duties among other members until Captain Lawrence returns from his sheep shearing which will be the latter part of June.

MRS. RAMBEAU RETURNS

Mrs. L. B. Rambeau, mother of Marjorie Rambeau, the noted actress, whose name is familiar to every one, has just returned from New York to her home at No. 203 East Chestnut Street. She intends to remain here and says that good old Glendale is good enough for anybody. She arrived yesterday on the Santa Fe Overland at 5:30 p. m. and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Kindleberger, and her maid, Marie Bundy. Mrs. Rambeau intended to drive through in her machine, but on account of the condition of the roads in the East concluded to ship her car. Coming through New Mexico, Mrs. Rambeau had quite an experience. She and Marie got off at some town to get some lunch for the dog that she was bringing through in a lunch basket. She didn't want any of the Santa Fe trainmen, except the porter, to know she had a dog along. When she returned to the station, she found herself and Marie short one passenger train, her mother and the dog. When the officials found out who she was, they gave her the fastest A. P. engine on the line and a caboose. Then they started in a mad race after the flyer and caught up with it in forty-five minutes.

LIEUT. CHARLES POTTER

Lieut. Charles Potter, who is in the aviation service, is enjoying a thirty-day furlough, which he is spending at the home of his mother, Mrs. Maude L. Potter, of 123 North Everett Street. The furlough came to him after his participation in the flying circus all over the United States for the Victory Loan in which he traveled 9500 miles in about forty days. He has been at Ellington Field, near Houston, but is expecting orders which will take him to Langley Field, near Hampton Roads. He expects to remain in the service for some time and likes his work. His mother used to worry about the dangers to which he is exposed but she is getting used to it and says she has felt differently ever since she went to him when he was very ill of pneumonia and during her stay lived on the field and learned more about flying and grew accustomed to the sight of planes aloft. She says he is tremendously interested in the trans-Atlantic flights.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

The party for children of the Congregational Sunday School, which is given annually by Mrs. H. L. Bullinger, superintendent of the Cradle Roll, and Mrs. E. D. Yard, superintendent of Primary Department, took place at the church Tuesday afternoon and was a most delightful affair, in which about 80 guests participated, 50 of whom were children. It lasted from 3 to 5 o'clock and the church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. Refreshments highly satisfactory to the special guests were served and a musical program was given which included two piano numbers by Master William D. McRae, which were quite remarkable as the little fellow is but six years old. There were vocal solos by Mrs. C. H. Van Dyke and by Mrs. F. W. Blaikie, who was accompanied upon the piano by Mrs. Earl Bryant, and two songs by children of the Primary Department. The children closed the afternoon with games and, as usual, it was one of the pleasantest days in the calendar of the Congregational Church. Mrs. Bullinger and Mrs. Yard were assisted by Mrs. Minnie Patterson and Mrs. Bellue.

DANCED FOR "KING'S DAUGHTERS"

A group of accomplished Glendale children went to Los Angeles Saturday to dance for "The King's Daughters," in the Knights of Columbus Hall. The organization is made up of Catholic girls of the Angel City. The party included Gertrude Ewins, Glenn and Shirley Hitchcock, Robert Lehman, John and Emeline Chalfant of Glendale and Cecelia May Fisher of Burbank. All the children are pupils in the Pearl Keller School. Each child was presented with a little souvenir.

COLUMBUS AVENUE MOTHERS

The regular meeting of the Columbus Avenue Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the Kindergarten Room of the school Thursday, April 22d, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Cotton will sing and all the past presidents will speak. Every mother is urged to be present as this will be the last meeting of the school year.

MRS. J. E. BELLUE,
Publicity Chairman.

SENIOR CLASS DAY

The Seniors of Glendale Union High are to have a class day after all. It is set for Monday, June 16th, the first day of commencement week. The Ivy procession will take place in the afternoon and will be followed by a class banquet in the cafeteria and after that there will be a party in the School Gym. Ruth Ryan and Marcella Miller are the committee of arrangements for the banquet. Martha Ray and Arville Williams are the entertainment committee in charge of the party.

J. E. Peters of 400 West Colorado, city salesman for Bishop & Co., of Los Angeles, who was seriously ill of acute indigestion four days last week is back on the job again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dopp of 344 Myrtle Street are moving to Los Angeles Thursday. The house they will vacate has already been leased by other parties who are waiting for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Englehart of East Wilson Avenue have had as house guests the past week Mr. and Mrs. Ransom L. Sare, of Denver. They were very much pleased with Southern California.

Friends of Dr. Emil Tholen are glad to welcome his sister, Miss Tholen, who has come from Wisconsin to keep house for the doctor and take care of his little son. She arrived about a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Danner of Gardena Avenue left last Thursday for Walnut, Kansas, to be gone five or six weeks. The Danner children are being cared for by their grandmother, Mrs. Chadwick.

C. E. Boss has bought the stock and fixtures of the Bungalow Grocery on Central Avenue at Broadway. He was in the grocery business several years ago on East Broadway with Mr. Thorpe and latter by himself in the Atwater tract.

Mrs. W. H. Nicholson of 1215 East Wilson Avenue received a telegram from her brother, Sergeant L. H. Bess, who had recently landed and was then at Camp Mills. He expects to be in Glendale in a short time. He was in the air service.

F. L. Hilton, City Manager of Alhambra, who was present when Glendale's new fire engine was tested out, has been here several times since, the last time to get a copy of a Glendale ordinance covering a matter which Alhambra has under consideration.

Preceding the short adjourned meeting of the Board of City Trustees Monday evening, members were entertained by President Frank Muhleman at the Jewel City Cafe at dinner, when matters of interest in connection with civic affairs were discussed informally.

George Clayton Edwards of 256 N. Royal Drive, Eagle Rock, passed away at his son's residence, May 20, at 10 a. m., at the age of 73, from pneumonia. Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers Friday at 4, L. G. Scovern Company in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Easley, who moved a short time ago from 200 East Chestnut to a home they purchased at 659 North Central Avenue, are very making improvements in their property which they think they are going to like very much when they have been there long enough to feel as much at home as they did on Chestnut Street.

Mrs. Lilian E. Dow of 209 North Orange Street reports that her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philp, after a considerable search have located a pleasant apartment, of which they were to get possession the middle of the month. It is on the north side of Chicago on Hermitage Avenue not far from their relatives and also not far from Sheridan Road and Lake Michigan. So little building was done during the war that apartments are scarce. While they have been waiting they have had very good times sight-seeing with relatives who have automobiles and who have taken them to many interesting places in and around Chicago.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIETIES MEET

On Tuesday, the meeting time for the regular sessions of the three women's societies of the Glendale Presbyterian Church, the Work Department met at 10 o'clock when a considerable portion of the membership was present. At 12:30 a hot luncheon was served by the committee, of which Mrs. Isitt is chairman. The luncheon was followed by a short social hour and the afternoon session was in charge of the Mission Department of which Mrs. Hesse is chairman. Dr. and Mrs. Kelly, returned missionaries from Hainan, China, were the speakers and made fine addresses. The doctor, who is a medical missionary, spoke especially of leprosy and the great strides which have been made by the medical profession in treatment which will relieve the suffering of the early stages and arrest development of the disease.

Under the theme "Heathenism in America," Mrs. Kelly spoke of "Theosophy," "Buddhism" and other cults. About sixty ladies were present at the session, which was one of the most interesting that has been held by the society during the year.

RETURN OF GARLAND STONE

Miss Carrie Stone of 713 South Glendale Avenue reports that her brother, Garland Stone, who has been in service overseas, reached Los Angeles Monday and after spending a few hours between trains with members of his family went on to San Francisco where he is to receive his discharge. He was with the 145th Machine Gun Battalion as a First Class private. He was employed as a messenger in carrying dispatches for the Judge Advocate and did not succeed in getting into the battle line.

THE BARAGER FAMILY

Mr. Barager, who formerly conducted the Glendale Furniture Store which he sold out to Mr. Hardin, has returned from Long Beach where he carried on the same business and has opened a furniture store at 111 East Broadway. He and his family are residing at 810 East Harvard Street. His son, Donald Barager, who was with the Anti-Air Craft Division No. 2 in France and who got back in February, is assisting his father. He participated in the Battle of the Argonne and suffered a touch of shell shock but otherwise was uninjured. Another son, Lieutenant Kenneth Barager, who saw service in France with the heavy artillery, is now in Oakland, but will come South later in the season. He got home about the first of April.

Lieut. Benham, in charge of the National Aeronautical Headquarters, relates an unusual circumstance in connection with the air show in Hollywood Sunday afternoon. Dead Weights on Live Tires

Every time your truck strikes a hole, the load, dead, inanimate and tons heavy, heaves and crashes down on the rear axle and mechanism.

And with but one real shock absorber—the tires!

Still if the tires have no real give, no marked resilience, the mechanism must retain the shock—and depreciation and breakdowns are hastened.

Here is where GOODRICH DE LUXE Truck Tires daily save many dollars for operators in upkeep and depreciation.

So deep and lively are DE LUXE treads as to absorb within themselves the most staggering road jolts.

Then again they put more working rubber under the load—because there is no tread rubber hidden below the top level of the steel channel base.

In consequence, whatever your class of service, you may rest assured DE LUXE is the best, most economical "shock absorber" you can put between road and load.

MICHIGAN MEN IN FRONT LINE

(By United Press)

LONDON (By Mail).—Michigan infantrymen are bearing the brunt of the defense against the Bolsheviki in the Toulgas sector of the Archangel front, Lieut. H. M. Wyckoff, American Red Cross, reported today. Lieutenant Wyckoff arrived direct from North Russia.

Co-operating with French troops, the 339th regiment from Camp Custer has been holding the snow-bound front line most of the winter, he said. It will receive its share of the expected Bolsheviki offensive this spring.

At the front the Americans live in snow-topped dug-outs a short distance behind an irregular line of trenches. They spend every other month in barracks in rear areas, alternating with the French at the outposts.

The killed are buried where they fall on the frozen battlefield. Some American graves are now behind the Bolsheviki lines as a result of the Allies' retreat. Others are under fire.

Wounded are transported on sleds to rear hospitals and finally to Archangel.

Wisconsin engineers have won highest praise from British and Russian army chiefs, Wyckoff said. At Archangel the Americans are housed in comfortable barracks. The morale is good, although the men are anxious to get home.

Americans are operating with the British on the Dvina and Volga rivers and with the French along the Vologda railroad, Wyckoff stated.

He told of the woes of the Red Cross when it founded a weekly newspaper at Archangel. English type was not plentiful in Archangel and the "American Sentinel" finally appeared with a front page that would have delighted O. Henry. Seven or eight distinct families of type were represented and when they ran out, the printers had slipped in Russian characters that looked something like the English letters. Every edition contained every piece of English type in the town.

Captain Roger Lewis, formerly an American press association correspondent at Petrograd, volunteered as editor. Of the four pages, one was devoted to comics, one to letters and contributions from soldiers, a column to editorials, and the balance to the allied communiques received at headquarters. Rein-deer drawn sleighs carried the papers to the men at the front.

During his tour of the fighting areas, Wyckoff photographed the grave of every American soldier fallen in action. Every mother who has lost a son in that frozen country will this summer receive a picture of her boy's grave, showing the neat wooden cross at the head of the mound.

He estimated the loss in killed and died from influenza at 200 for all fronts. Of these about 180 died after being brought to Archangel. Of these latter, about 100 died from wounds in action and about 80 from influenza. They are buried in a little Lutheran cemetery. Before leaving, Ambassador Francis bought a section of their burying ground and dedicated it to American soldier dead.

HIS TRUST

An agent went to heaven
(As all such tales begin)
And he asked old Poilu Peter
To kindly let him in.
The old gate-guardian lamped him
And said: "I sadly fear
There is no joyous welcome
Awaiting you in here.

"The records show they tell me,
That in your chosen field
You cut a wide, wide swathlet
And got a goodly yield.
But yet within your parish
A lot of people died
Who left their funeral money
And little else beside.

"The records show some widows
And many orphans too
Who, in their hour of sorrow
Owe bitter grudge to you.
The one-time husband-father
You spoke with day by day
Left less than half of plenty
When he was whisked away.

"Yours was the task, sans question,
To see that all who wed
Provide for their dependents
Who mourn them when they're dead.
While this is not the tidings
I much prefer to tell,
It is my bounden duty
To say Go plumb to—well, why the dickens
Weren't you on the job more of the time!"

—Strickland Gillilan in "Life Assn. News."

LOOKED THE SAME

The influenza epidemic has made a lasting impression on school children. The following conversation was overheard in a grammar school in West Philadelphia, where the recent epidemic rather than orthography claimed prominence:

"Say, Bill, this 'flu' isn't anything new. Sir Walter Raleigh died with it."

"Aw, go on. He did not."

"Sure, he did. I'll show you. It's here in the history." He pointed a grimy finger to the sentence: "Sir Walter Raleigh's death was due to Spanish influence." — Philadelphia Public Ledger.

need a pond to swim in, they rarely suffer from disease and they take their meals at any old time. You can feed them liberally early in the morning then go away and stay all day, coming home at 10 o'clock. Just go out and say feed to them then. They'll leave the shelter of the mother's wing, come and blissfully fill up and then go quackfully back to the nightly shelter. The older ones lay during the greater part of the year. The eggs of the Indian Runner are the size of a very large hen egg, mostly white in color, but an occasional blue one is seen, and many people can detect little if any difference in taste from a hen's egg.

Mr. Young feeds a mixture of alfalfa meal, bran and buttermilk mash, mixed with cold water. This satisfies both young and old though for the real young he puts in a lesser quantity of the alfalfa meal. They make very little noise except at feeding time and then they can make themselves heard for a short distance. Mr. Young keeps a careful account of his sales of rabbits, ducks, chickens and eggs and has found that even the small number of each kept by him pay a good percentage of profit, with the ducks largely in the lead in this respect.

Ignorance and indifference are somewhat better looking than cruelty, but they belong to the same family.
